

First Annual UKCCSC Network Early Career Researchers Meeting

Agenda

6 July 2010, Crew Building Annex Room 4
(located in single story building north of Crew Building)
<http://www.ed.ac.uk/maps/buildings/crew-building>

Aims:

- To give UKCCSC early career researchers' network a basic introductions to each other and the whole chain of CCTS
- To facilitate information exchange with posters and networking opportunities
- To gather ideas/volunteers for future UKCCSC activities – particularly the first winter school (currently scheduled for Dec 2010)

- 10.30 Registration tea/coffee served and poster set-up
- 11.00 Welcome & UKCCSC overview - Robin Cathcart, University of Edinburgh
- 11.15 CCS context - Jon Gibbins, University of Edinburgh
- 11.45 Introduction to CO₂ capture – Niall MacDowell, Imperial College London
- 12.15 Introduction to CO₂ storage – Mark Naylor, University of Edinburgh
- 12.45 LUNCH with posters
- 14.15 Making CCS work in the UK- An Industry Perspective – Mark Siddle, 2Co Energy
- 14.45 Introduction to CCS policy and regulation – Ameena Camps, IEA GHG
- 15.15 COFFEE BREAK
- 15.45 Break-out groups
- What could UKCCSC do for us?
 - What could we do using UKCCSC support/name that we couldn't otherwise do?
 - What should winter school sessions for our area look like?
 - What would we like to do to make the winter school sessions what we want?
- 16.45 Report back to plenary
- 17:30 Board coach to drinks reception and dinner location
- 18.00 Reception (joined by arrivals for the storage and monitoring workshop on 7 July)
- 19.00 Dinner